INTRODUCING IDIA

The Increasing Diversity by Increasing Access to Legal Education project is a nation-wide movement to empower underprivileged communities by creating top quality lawyers from within. Founded by legal academic, Late Dr. Shamnad Basheer, it runs on the backbone of more than 500 passionate student volunteers spread across India.

Underprivileged students in India lack equitable access to quality legal education. This can be traced to:

- Lack of awareness about law as a career that can improve their lives;
- Entrance exams (such as CLAT) that require expensive coaching;
- Extremely high fees and expenditure for the 5-year law degree; and
- Lack of financial aid to students from low-income backgrounds.

IDIA identifies underprivileged students with an aptitude for law and trains them for law entrance exams over a 1-2 year period. In 8 years, 111 students trained by IDIA have gained admission to leading law schools.

IDIA not only enables access to legal education, it also fosters diversity at the leading law schools and enriches the very process of legal education.

WHY LEGAL EDUCATION?

Law is a powerful tool that can be deployed by underprivileged communities to help themselves. Access to quality legal education facilitates gainful employment across many sectors, including courts (litigation), law firms, companies, international organizations, human rights and social activism, policy think-tanks, research & academia, and legal journalism. It also enables students from underprivileged communities to develop advocacy skills and become effective leaders and spokespersons for their communities.
OUR IMPACT IN 8 YEARS

36,000+ students sensitised to law as an attractive career, and 300+ students selected and trained for CLAT and other law entrance exams.

Of the 300+ students trained:
140 students (called “IDIA Scholars”) cracked the law entrance exam and became eligible for admissions to leading law schools.

Of these 140 IDIA scholars:
111 IDIA Scholars went ahead and took admission to various law schools.
76 IDIA Scholars are currently studying in law schools all over India.

Of these 76 current IDIA scholars:
45 are in National Law Universities (NLUs).
18 are female.
11 are Person with Disabilities (PWDs), and
30 belong to marginalized Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

Our Graduates:
Till date, we have had 4 batches of IDIA Scholars, constituting altogether, 35 IDIA Scholars, who have graduated from law schools across the country. They now work with leading law firms, as litigators, in-house counsel and some are preparing for civil services/judicial service exams.
IDIA Scholars hail from various parts of India, including some very remote areas — Sunderbans in West Bengal, Gudemaranahalli in Karnataka, Machhilipatnam and Ongole in Andhra Pradesh, Karimnagar in Telangana, Phagwara in Punjab, Barmer in Rajasthan, Pitij in Jharkhand, L. Gamnom in Manipur, Chhinga Weng in Mizoram, and Kollam in Kerala.

This also exposes IDIA student volunteers to parts of India that they might otherwise never have interacted with. The various states that IDIA Scholars hail from are highlighted in blue.
OUR ACTIVITIES

SENSITISATION
We conduct sensitisation sessions for underprivileged students at various schools in different parts of India. Our sessions focus on raising awareness about law as an attractive career option.

This is critical since most people in India have a poor opinion of the law and lawyers, and are unaware of the benefits of a good quality legal education.

SELECTION OF TRAINEES
We select around 50 underprivileged students each year and train them for 1-2 years for CLAT and other competitive law entrance examinations.

Our selection process consists of a basic aptitude test and a series of interviews to identify students with an aptitude for a career in law. A thorough background check confirms their eligibility for our support.

TRAINING
The selected IDIA students (Trainees) are put through a rigorous training and mentorship program.

This is administered by IDIA volunteers from the top law schools across the country, along with leading CLAT coaching centres who have partnered with IDIA for this purpose.
Some of the leading law schools have instituted fee waivers and scholarships for IDIA Scholars. We are negotiating with other law universities to institute similar policies.

Where Universities provide no waivers or scholarships, we sponsor the fees and expenses of IDIA Scholars by raising funds from top lawyers and others in the legal fraternity.

IDIA’s involvement does not end with the admission of students into law school. Our ultimate goal is to transform underprivileged children into community leaders and leading lawyers who are “Creative, Holistic, Altruistic and Maverick Problem Solvers” (CHAMPS). To this end, our CHAMPS project provides them with a rigorous mentorship program, specialized leadership and soft skills training, as well as access to internships.

IDIA Research and Policy team seeks to further IDIA’s vision for inclusive education, by research and advocacy initiatives at the macro level. The IRAP vertical has worked on:

- CLAT Reforms
- Diversity Surveys at NLUs
- Scholarships at NLUs
The IDIA Disability Project is an initiative to make the legal arena more accessible for persons with disabilities. Under this initiative, we seek to expand the opportunities offered to students with disabilities before and after law school, and create a more inclusive atmosphere.

THE PEOPLE DRIVING IDIA

The core strength of IDIA is the large pool of passionate student volunteers from across India, who work around the clock to further the cause of diversity and inclusion. Each student volunteer is either a part of a State Chapter or a National Vertical, as discussed below.

STATE CHAPTERS: IDIA comprises of around 20 State Chapters. Each Chapter is led by a student team leader and comprises of around 20 to 30 student volunteers from various law schools in the state. They conduct sensitisation sessions at schools in their state, select underprivileged students with an aptitude for law, train them for CLAT and other competitive exams, and mentor them once they are admitted to law colleges.

NATIONAL VERTICALS: National teams, comprising of student volunteers from law colleges across India, also work on various activities that have a pan-India impact. This includes Training and Materials, Research and Policy, and the Disability Access Program. These verticals have developed accessible training materials, hosted assistive technology training workshops, conducted national diversity surveys, and more.
We now have a full-time management team in place:

THE FUTURE FOR IDIA

IDIA's ultimate vision is to become redundant – having institutionalised diversity and inclusivity in the legal sector to such an extent that external intervention will no longer be necessary.

To succeed in this goal, IDIA needs to continue growing and implementing its programs. IDIA hopes to add new chapters, and launch state liaisons/small teams in the remaining states/union territories in India. This will facilitate an increase in the number of sensitized communities and students as well as more trainees and scholars.

To increase its capacity in the next few years, IDIA aims to strengthen its financial sustainability by growing the corpus funding, and securing long-term donors. IDIA will complement this by improving its efficiency, effectiveness, and reach of its operations, and attracting more talent to the core team.

My life changed when I was selected as an IDIA Trainee. IDIA provided me a platform to make mistakes, learn and grow. I was trained intensively by IDIA volunteers in Delhi for the law entrance examination. Currently, I’m in my second year at NLU-Jodhpur, and I’m very grateful to have this opportunity to study at a premier law school. I cannot express with words how I feel today. Not only has IDIA paid for my education, but IDIA volunteers in Rajasthan have mentored and supported me from my first day in college.

My mom taught me a very valuable lesson: if someone is doing something for you, it is your responsibility to give back one day. IDIA is the organization which has done a lot for me and someday, I hope to do my little bit, by helping other students also succeed.”

- Rishabh Kumar, IDIA Scholar, Year III, NLU Jodhpur
HOW YOU CAN HELP

We have listed below the various ways in which you can support us. We would appreciate it if you could also help us gather more support from various individuals and institutions interested in this revolutionary cause of creating a more inclusive India.

IDIA is keen to partner with law colleges, law firms, corporates, and other like-minded organisations. Monetary partnerships enable us to sustain and scale up IDIA’s activities, and non-monetary partnerships increase the impact of our activities.

SECURE FEE WAIVERS: Some law schools have granted fee waivers to IDIA Scholars. It would significantly further IDIA’s cause if you could help us secure similar partnerships with other NLUs and leading private law colleges.

INSTITUTE SCHOLARSHIPS: Instituting Scholarships for IDIA Scholars enables them to pursue their legal education free of financial worry. These Scholarships can be named as the donor wishes, and progress reports will be sent regularly to donors.

OFFER INTERNSHIPS: Offering internship opportunities will greatly help open doors for our IDIA scholars and incentivise IDIA Volunteers to work harder towards IDIA’s mission.
MENTOR SCHOLARS: We need more lawyers to provide professional mentorship for our Scholars. Our Scholars could also use your help with improving their language and communication skills. Volunteering a few hours each month goes a long way in the development of our Scholars.

INSTITUTE INCENTIVES FOR VOLUNTEERS: Since volunteers play a critical role in IDIA activities, incentives such as internship opportunities, cash awards, and nominal monthly stipends for best performers will go a long way towards boosting IDIA’s impact.

SPONSOR ACTIVITIES OF YOUR STATE CHAPTER: State Chapters incur expenditures in conducting sensitisation sessions, and selecting and training Trainees. Sponsoring the activities of your State Chapter enables them to expand the scope of their operations and increase their impact.

SUPPORT OUR DIFFERENTLY-ABLED SCHOLARS: Providing software and hardware solutions to assist differently-abled scholars would increase their learning opportunities and help them in adapting better to their lives at law schools and internships.
PARTNER WITH US: Partnerships that help augment our operations, improve our processes, or increase our know-how can give us a tremendous fillip in scaling up our operations. Do get in touch with us if you or your organisation can contribute in this manner.

CONTRIBUTE TO OUR CORPUS FUND: We are setting up a Corpus Fund to help sustain us in the long run. This Fund will cover operational expenditure—for conducting sensitization, selection, and training of Trainees, administering scholarships, etc. We are seeking annual pledge contributions to our Corpus Fund, which will allow us to focus exclusively on our core activities of selecting, training and mentoring (instead of spending a large chunk of our time on fundraising), and help us scale up and boost our impact.

If you wish to support us in any manner, please drop us an email at info@idialaw.com and we will get in touch with you. Thank you!

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY
Contributions to IDIA count towards fulfillment of a firm's CSR obligations under S.135 of the Companies Act, 2013. By contributing to a reputed, well-structured, and economically efficient organisation, you will ease your directors of the administrative burden of monitoring the spending of funds at every stage.

At IDIA, funds are sanctioned and managed centrally. Accounting is consolidated, and consequently, all expenditure is accounted for. In the interests of transparency and good governance, we make public our audited accounts.
